MATERIALS

SA!DA! (Sing Along, Dance Along) Collections of folk songs and children's songs from around the world.

Hippo Goes Overseas (HGO) The true story of a Japanese girl's homestay on an American farm. In the "Transnational Edition," the language changes with the scene, stimulating both ear and brain.

Kabajin I-IV Four stories about the adventures of a Hippo boy. Unless otherwise noted, the story is given phrase by phrase in two languages, with two language pairs per CD.

Multilingual Friends Around the World The story of high school yearlong exchange students in Wisconsin, and their future adventures around the world as college students and working adults.

Anyone Can Speak 7 Languages A collection of essays on language acquisition. This material contains more sophisticated vocabulary and concepts.

*Please note that there is no book available for Taiwanese.
