

LEX WORLD INTERNSHIP PROJECT (WIP)
CODE OF CONDUCT

Following are the terms of participation on the LEX/Hippo Family Club World Internship Project. Participants in WIP are expected to observe the following during the duration of the exchange.

1. Interns will show respect for LEX America and LEX/Hippo Family Club staff and follow their requirements and instructions.
2. Interns must abide by the laws of their home country and their host country and by the rules/guidelines of LEX/Hippo Family Club.
3. Interns are expected to complete the entire program once they are selected and arrive in country.
4. Interns are expected to adapt to their host family's living situation. They are expected to follow the host family rules and work with the host family and LEX to resolve problems. They are expected to respect and preserve the host family's privacy in all venues, including the local community and online.
5. Interns may not change host families at will, but requests for host family changes will be seriously considered.
6. Interns must submit regular process and evaluation reports as requested by LEX/Hippo Family Club.
7. Interns must always be aware of their responsibilities as an intern and make a determined effort in their independent study projects (if applicable).
8. Interns are not permitted to drive any motorized vehicle while participating in the exchange program.
9. Interns are expected to return to their home country on the date specified by LEX/Hippo Family Club.
10. Interns must plan any travel in conjunction with LEX and their host family. Interns must gain approval from LEX/Hippo Family Club for any international travel.

You are representing LEX/Hippo Family Club, the host family, your own family, and your home country. Interns are expected to behave in a mature manner befitting your role while not jeopardizing your personal values, violating laws of the host country or home country, or endangering your safety or the safety of others.

Issues of concern include sexual contact and activity, changing religion, getting married, use of illegal drugs, smoking or drinking (if under legal age in host or home country), participation in high risk activities such as skydiving, hang gliding, parachute jumping, etc.

I have read, understand, and agree to comply with these rules. I understand that failure to comply with rules may be grounds for dismissal from the LEX World Internship Project, and termination of my visa (if applicable). I may be returned home at personal expense and without refund of program fees for violating the above.
